BACKGROUND

World Social Work Day (WSWD) was launched by The International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW) in 1983. Later, other social work organizations such as the International Association of Schools of Social Work (IASSW) have also joined as partners to this event. WSWD has become a focal point in the social work calendar with social workers all over the world celebrating and promoting the contributions of the profession towards individuals, families, communities, and wider society. The day is celebrated every 3rd Tuesday of March.

On this day, social work organizations throughout the world celebrate WSWD by the way of bringing messages to their governments, communities, and peer professional groups on the unique and significant contributions made by the social work profession. The actions also highlight the approach of the social work profession to facilitate sustainable community outcomes by applying a developmental and capacity building approach coupled with advocating for social justice and human rights.

The themes of WSWD are set for two years according to the goals of the Global Agenda for Social Work and Social Development:

2012 – 2014: Promoting Social and Economic Equality

2015 – 2016: Promoting the Dignity and Worth of Peoples.

2017 – 2018: Promoting Community and Environmental Sustainability

2019 – 2020: Promoting the Importance of Human Relationships

2020 – 2021: Strengthening Social Solidarity & Global Connectedness

Every year IFSW produces a poster announcing WSWD which is spontaneously translated into over 45 languages, and presented to governments, political bodies posted on the notice boards of social services and in social work classrooms throughout the world. The event has become so successful in recent years it is now generally considered as a highlight of international solidarity and cooperation of social workers.

WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY AT THE UNITED NATIONS

IASSW and IFSW have special consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (UN-ECOSOC) (IASSW since 1947 and IFSW since 1959). Sporadically WSWD at the UN has also been celebrated in Vienna, Nairobi, and Santiago de Chile. In 2017 for the first time, WSWD was celebrated at the UN in Bangkok.

WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY 2021 AT DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK, (CBLU), BHIWANI,

World Social Work Day is on the 16th of March 2021. It is the key day in the year that social workers worldwide stand together to advance our common message globally. This year, the 2021 World Social Day highlights Ubuntu: I am Because We Are. This is the first theme of the 2020 to 2030 Global Agenda for Social Work and Social Development. Ubuntu: I am Because We are – Strengthening Social Solidarity and Global Connectedness. Ubuntu: 'I am because we are' is a concept and philosophy that resonates with the social work perspective of the interconnectedness of all peoples and their environments. It speaks to the need for global solidarity and also highlights indigenous knowledge and wisdom. Silvana Martinez, IFSW President commented. The theme comes from extensive consultation within IFSW and beyond. At a time when global politics has retreated into nationalism, Ubuntu is a powerful message on the need for solidarity at all levels: within communities, societies, and globally. It is a message that all people are interconnected and that our future is dependent on recognizing all people's involvement in co-building a sustainable, fair, and socially just future. Motivated by IFSW, APSWDP invites all social workers, partner organizations, and people who care about the future to partner and organize events in the country. Together we can change the world for this and future generations.

APSWDP has conceived a Training Workshop on Community Driven Development and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) coinciding World Social Work Day 2021 in institutional and technical partnership with the Department of Social Work, Chaudhary Bansi Lal University (CBLU), BHIWANI, Haryana, and The Climate Reality Project- India respectively on 20 March 2021 for the university social work students, faculty, researchers and local CSO partners for fostering local partnership and sustained handholding in localizing and achieving SDGs through community-driven development at grass-root level.
