About APSWDP

The Association of Professional Social Workers and Development Practitioners (APSWDP) is a registered, not-for-profit, membership-based, civil society think-tank and a professional association of social workers and development practitioners. Founded in the year 2014, the association has been conferred with Special Consultative Status by the United Nations Economic and Social Council (UN- ECOSOC) and affiliated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications (UN-DGC) since 2019. Also, the association is accredited by the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and has Observer Status with the United Nations Environment Assembly (UNEA) and United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) since 2022. The first issue of IJSWSD Year-I, Volume-I will likely to come out in August 2023.

ABOUT IJSWSD

International Journal of Social Work and Sustainable Development (IJSWSD) is the official journal of the Association of Professional Social Workers and Development Practitioners (APSWDP). It is a peer-reviewed, refereed annual journal designed to share and disseminate knowledge; based on action-oriented work in the field of Social Work, Sustainable Development, and allied areas. It is further aimed at promoting interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research and community action programs. IJSWSD aims at advancing the theory of Social Work by bridging the gap between Values and Actions. It provides a platform for educators, researchers, professional social workers, and development practitioners engaged in government and non-government sectors to publish their innovative ideas in the form of articles, research papers, case studies, and book reviews. IJSWSD shall be published annually (once a year).

AIMS and OBJECTIVES of IJSWSD

The aim of the International Journal of Social Work and Sustainable Development (IJSWSD) is to become a lead source of scholarly articles and research papers in the domain of the Social Work and Development Sector through the promotion of research publication at affordable or at no cost. It will be a blend of Education and Action-oriented fieldwork.

Objectives:

1. To Promote Professional Social Work Education and foster Education for Sustainable Development.
2. To provide a publishing platform to Social Workers, Development Practitioners, Researchers, and Scholars from across the Globe from different fields.
3. To make research publication hassle-free to ensure sharing of knowledge and cross-fertilization of ideas and practices in due course.
4. To make research papers and scholarly articles available at affordable or no cost to all users.
5. To create avenues for the promotion and publication of research papers about and from social, economic, and culturally weakened sections of society across the world.

MANUSCRIPT GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Before submitting the manuscript, authors are advised to ensure that they have carefully read and observed the following guidelines:

1. A Full-length article/paper submission must be in English, typed in MS-Word in Times New Roman with font size 12 and not more than 7,000 words in length and double-spaced throughout including tables, diagrams, illustrations, references etc.
2. An abstract of not more than 100 words describing the article's main findings and conclusions must be included, along with 3-5 keywords.
3. In addition, the journal is interested in brief notes of up to 2,000 words, on topics such as reports of research in progress, examples of unresolved problems, descriptions of policy, and current programmes that would be of interest to the social work fraternity.
4. Bibliographical references should be arranged alphabetically and given at the end of the text in the APA Referencing Style (Latest Edition)only.
5. All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed in an 'Acknowledgements' section. Any such acknowledgement should appear first at the end of the article prior to references.

6. Authors must furnish the full contact details including name, designation, affiliating institution, contact number, e-mail ID, and mailing address.

7. All papers must be submitted via the online system.

8. Manuscripts not conforming to the above guidelines will be rejected.

IJSWSD observes a rigorous review policy in which a duly constituted committee will review the submitted article/ papers and reserves the right to edit the materials and/ or ask for modifications and resubmission of the same. Information regarding acceptance/ rejection will be communicated to the authors subsequently.

IJSWSD takes the issues of copyright infringement, plagiarism, or other breaches of best practices in publication very seriously. It seeks to protect the reputation of the journal against malpractice. Hence, submitted articles will be checked with duplication-checking software. Where an article is found to have plagiarised other work or included third-party copyright material without permission or with insufficient acknowledgment or where the authorship of the article is contested, IJSWSD reserves the right to take action including taking up the matter with the head of the institution/department or dean of the author's institution and/or relevant academic bodies or societies; banning the author from publication in the IJSWSD or appropriate legal action, the authors shall be held solely responsible for any consequential outcomes, damages, compensation in any form. Any correspondence, queries, or requests for additional information with regard to a manuscript submission should be sent to the editorial desk whereas other queries can be directed to the Managing Editor.
